

Custom Group Itineraries, Private Tours, Costumed Guides & Full Service Coordination

Explore the Annapolis Royal Area

The Annapolis Royal Area has been welcoming distinguished visitors for centuries. A wide range of professional tour services are offered from simple Meet and Greet functions with Costumed Heritage Interpreters to the Coordination of Customized Itineraries programs, innovative Group Packages and a host of Private Tour and Wedding-Party options.

Full, Half and Multi-Day Vacation Packages are available. Special rates and itineraries to suit each individual group need.

Knowledgeable and Enthusiastic Guides

Most tours are offered by Durline Melanson, President of The Historical Association of Annapolis Royal, and her husband, Alan, Past President -- voted one of Nova Scotia's three "Most Romantic Couples."

Both have extensive radio, television, film and tourism backgrounds which make for colorful interpretation of Annapolis Royal's unique and vibrant history. They enthusiastically team up to share their passion for history with visitors. Alan is bi-lingual (English/French), and Durline also speaks Spanish.

National and Provincial Recognition

The Historical Association was recognized by Prime Minister Jean Chrétien in 1996 as one of the Top Ten organizations in Canada for the preservation and presentation of heritage.

Prime Minister Paul Martin enjoyed the Candlelight Graveyard Tour in 2005, and the National Historic District Tour, Acadian Heritage Tour and Candlelight Graveyard Tour package, developed and delivered by Alan and Durline Melanson for The Historical Association of Annapolis Royal, was recognized by the Tourism Industry of Nova Scotia's Festivals and Events Council as the "Hometown Pride Event of the Year".
